

I have been listening to K-love since I became a Christian in 1998. It is a source of clean, wholesome, family-valued entertainment that we rarely see anymore. My family has a strong desire to keep K-Love on the air in as many locations as their financial support can provide. There is no guarantee LPFM will have the same values and family-programming of K-LOVE. Please keep them going on FM stations!